

Food Merchants Act On Many Resolutions As Convention Closes Here

Sunday Selling of Merchandise Referred to Committee, Approve Resolution That Packers Sell Only to Wholesalers.

INSTALL OFFICERS
Directors and Executives Go Into Executive Session to Consider Policies for Coming Year.

Strongly expressed divided opinions occupied the attention of delegates to the closing session of the New York State Food Merchants' Convention at the municipal auditorium this morning, the subject matter being approval of a number of resolutions presented for action. These included taxations for membership campaign fund, unfair price fixing by wholesalers, Sunday selling of merchandise, financing of the annual convention, several resolutions approved by the National Retail Grocers' Association, which included a tax bill, and a resolution that packers sell only to retailers. Almost all of the resolutions were heavily debated.

Late yesterday, the convention re-elected the entire slate of officers by a unanimous vote, and, after considerable discussion and lobbying, selected Rochester as the site for the 1938 convention. Delegates from Newburgh made a determined effort to have the Hilly City designated as the convention city for next year, but the Rochester delegates won in vote of the assembled delegation.

Officers who will guide the destinies for the year of 1938 are: President, William J. Durr of New York; first vice-president, Raymond J. Tierney of Rochester; second vice-president, Edward Mapstone of Syracuse; third vice-president, Frank S. Pillion of Lackawanna; treasurer, Clifford T. Bennett of Kingston; executive secretary, John F. Murray of Syracuse; directors, Charles B. Austin of Ulster, Blaise M. Grabowski of Buffalo, James T. McKinnney of Brooklyn, William A. Philo of Schenectady, August Puckhaber of Newburgh, and Walter S. Swinarski of Buffalo.

Executive Secretary Murray expressed his appreciation for the fine cooperation given the delegates by the people of Kingston and commented on the excellent facilities which Kingston offers for conventions. He then called for the final report of the resolutions committee.

Taxation Opposed

As soon as the first resolution was read, calling for a state-wide program increasing the membership and asking for a tax on all members for the purpose of creating a campaign fund, the verbal fireworks exploded, with various delegates opposing any taxation of members for any reason whatsoever. Several solutions were offered for the creation of a campaign fund as it was evident that all present were in favor of such a membership drive, but were opposed to the method suggested of raising the necessary money to carry on the program.

After further discussion, the resolution was rejected.

The question of price-fixing by wholesalers through the medium of advertising without consulting the independent merchants, was brought up by the capitol district group who illustrated their point by reference to the practice carried on by certain packers, of advertising a fixed price on their products which did not allow a fair margin of profit for the retailer. A great deal of discussion greeted this resolution and it was finally referred back to the sponsors to be re-written and again presented with certain changes which had been suggested by the delegates. The resolution was finally adopted as rewritten.

Sunday Selling

The practice of selling merchandise on Sunday was brought out and given a thorough airing. Several delegates mentioned the presence of state laws governing this question, while others offered the opinion that these existing laws were not enforceable and a survey should be made with the purpose in view of securing legislation which would have teeth and could be enforced. Various ideas on the method of making this survey were expressed, along with complaints concerning the kinds of stores selling groceries and merchandise which belonged only on the counters of the retail grocer. The matter was finally referred to a committee which will make a survey of the problem.

The resolutions approved by the National Retail Grocers' Association and offered to the state convention were approved, including the tax item.

Annual Banquet of Food Merchants Is Held Wednesday

The social festivities held in connection with the 36th annual convention of the New York State Food Merchants' Association was climaxed Wednesday evening with the holding of the annual convention banquet at the New York State Armory off Manor avenue, which was attended by about 500 delegates and guests. Following the serving of the banquet C. Ray Everett presided as toastmaster and introduced the officers and guests of the association. There was no oratory as the time that would have been taken up by speeches was devoted to the presenting of one of the finest floor shows ever staged in this city.

The banquet had been prepared by Fred Spinnewebber of Port Ewen, and was excellently cooked and served. The greater part of the menu served had been prepared and cooked at "Spinny's" in Port Ewen and conveyed to the armory in trucks.

As the delegates and guests entered the banquet hall they had buttnoise bouquets for the men and buttonholes for the ladies presented by the UFA. The banquet tables were also artistically decorated with cut flowers.

The following fine menu was served:

Tomato juice cocktail
Fruit Consomme
Olives, celery, lettuce, tomatoes
Roast Vermont Turkey
with dressing
Cranberry sauce
Rolls, butter, ice cream
Assorted cakes Coffee and tea

As the banqueters took their seats the invocation was offered by the Rev. Clarence E. Brown, pastor of the Wurts Street Baptist Church. Following the serving of the banquet Clifford T. Bennett, president of the local UFA, introduced City Treasurer Ray Everett who presided as toastmaster. Mr. Everett said that there would be no oratory but he would call upon the various officers and guests to arise and take a bow as he introduced them. Among the city guests presented were Mayor C. J. Heiselman and Alderman-at-large John J. Schwenk.

Other city guests in attendance were Lieutenant Matthew Bence, Police Commissioner John B. Stetley, City Engineer James Norton and Officer Peter Camp of the Kingston police department. Officer Camp, who attended all of the social functions during the convention, is one of the men who was instrumental in getting the convention for Kingston this year.

During the evening Alderman Paul A. Zucca and his orchestra rendered a fine musical program and later furnished the music for the dancing that followed the floor show.

The floor show consisting of 10 professional vaudeville acts was presented by Alfred Skeas as director. The opening number was a dancing number by eight young women. Among the acts that deserved special mention were Barron and Arthur, travesty dancers; the Whirlwinds, roller skaters, and Selden and Entler, the happy imitators of moving picture re-enactments.

Among the out of town guests of the association at the banquet were Benedict Brownstein and Gus Kotzenberg representing the Borden's Farm Products.

The banquet and floor show brought the social functions in connection with the annual convention to a fitting close.

Whalen Withdraws from N. Y. C. Race, His Place Is Taken by Judge Mahoney

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—The withdrawal of Grover A. Whalen, urbane anti-Tammany candidate, clarified New York city's tangled mayoralty situation today, but other complications remained to confuse Gotham's voting millions in the pre-primary campaign.

Replacing Whalen as the Democratic bearer of the New Deal banner was former Judge Jeremiah Titus Mahoney, president of the Amateur Athletic Union and bitter foe of the present leadership of Tammany Hall.

Opposed to him for the Democratic nomination September 16 was United States Senator Royal S. Copeland, Roosevelt critic who is backed by former Governor Alfred E. Smith and dominant Tammany chiefs.

Pitted against both Mahoney and Copeland was astute little Fiorello LaGuardia, endorsed by the American Labor party last night as "the greatest mayor the city of New York has ever had."

The withdrawal of Whalen, former police commissioner, promised a two-fronted intra-party fight within Democratic ranks before the primary—with the outspoken Judge Mahoney as the spearhead

"KIDNAPED" BOY WITH "REAL PARENTS"

Donald Horst, kidnaped from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Horst of Chicago, is shown with Mr. and Mrs. John Regan, who admitted taking the child while Mrs. Horst battled, screaming, to prevent it. Chicago's Assistant State's Attorney Wilbert F. Crowley said the Regans came to his office voluntarily after reading newspaper accounts of the taking of Donald and told him they had the child, but denied making a telephone call purporting to be a demand for $5,000 ransom. Mrs. Horst reported such a call after the child was taken.

Brickyard Strike Spreads to Hutton Yards Early Today

The Hudson river brickyard district labor troubles grew in Kingston this morning when the brick workers employed on the Hutton Company yard on North street struck. None of the brickyards within the city limits are now working. For the past month the only yard in the city that has been working has been the Hutton yard, as the Terry yard was closed down for repairs about a month ago.

The decision to strike today at the Hutton yard was reached at a meeting of the workers held in St. Mary's Hall at Kingston Point on Wednesday night. The meeting was addressed by Organizer Joseph F. Quinn, who has been busy for several weeks organizing the brickyard workers in this district.

After the men had voted to strike today Organizer Quinn repeated his orders for "perforated picketing" and there was no disorder apparent at the Hutton yard today. The men were scheduled to start work at 6 o'clock this morning, but did not report. According to the men on strike there are but three carpenters and a fireman at work this morning on the yard. At the Hutton Company office it was stated that about a dozen men were working.

The Hutton Company stated this morning that they had no statement to make at the present time. Strikers claimed that when the yard was operating that about 100 men were employed and that of that number practically all of them had struck this morning.

The union meeting held at Kingston Point last night was attended by striking brickyard workers from Beacon, Roseton, Coeymans and East Kingston.

Groups of strikers were gathered along North street, some distance from the Hutton yard this morning, and there was no picketing in close vicinity to the brickyard.

Local police on duty in the strike area in the city stated that there was no disorder, and that shortly before 6 o'clock this morning several automobiles filled with brickyard employees drew up in front of the plant with the intention of trying to induce any who wanted to return to work to refrain from doing so.

The unexpectedly large attendance taxed the seating capacity arrangements which had been provided, but the site selected allowed all to see the program presented, although several hundred were forced to stand. Suitable arrangements will be made for future community nights to take care of any sized crowd without the inconvenience of standing during the program. Community Nights at Hasbrouck are held every Wednesday night and are cordially invited to attend.

BOARD TO INVESTIGATE DISASTER TO AIRLINER

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—A three-man board of inquiry undertook today to find what caused the destruction of the Pan American Grace airliner which plummeted into the sea off Panama.

The crash on Monday night apparently killed 14 persons.

The board is composed of Chairman Miller C. Foster, assistant to the assistant secretary of commerce; E. L. Y. Cravich, chief of foreign air line inspection, and Roy Keeley, air line inspector.

Will Retire

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 5 (AP)—William E. Still, senior associate counsel of the State Tax Department, will retire on September 1 because of ill health, State Tax Commissioner Mark Graves said today.

Mr. Still's departure will follow by less than two months the retirement of Seth T. Cole, his immediate superior for the past 12 years.

About 2,000 At Hasbrouck Park Community Night

Hasbrouck Park was host Wednesday night to nearly 2,000 people at its weekly community night. An unusually entertaining program consisting of numbers by the members of the park was presented.

Preceding the entertainment, the Senior softball team defeated the High School Seniors, 4-1, after a hard fought battle during which several close decisions were hotly contested.

Opening the program was an address by Mayor Conrad Heiselman, who expressed his pleasure in being present at the exercises. He commended all who had anything to do with park work particularly Harry L. Edson, chairman of the park committee, and Mrs. Luther, who has aided greatly in raising funds for the park.

Mr. Heiselman also commended the directors for the work they were doing there. Alderman-at-large John J. Schwenk stated that the park program was proving so interesting to his own children that it was affecting the noon time meal at his home. He also praised the park department for the fine work it was doing on the playgrounds this summer.

George Spalt then led some community singing assisted by Herbert Cook on the harmonica, and little Lillian Gill sang and tap danced. "Merry Go Round Broke Down," "Sailboat in the Moonlight," and "Sweet Violets" were sung by Florence Arguevlew, Mary Alice Cole, Gloria Jankowski, Skot Houghthalting and Helen Skop, following which a tap dance was given by Gloria Black, a young lady who barely was seen.

Herbert Cook and Clarence Stunt, harmonica and guitar players, presented a program which was greatly enjoyed.

Motion Pictures

Robert Gill presented some acrobatic tricks on the platform, following which Henry Milonig, Jr., presented an "Our Gang Comedy," followed by "Mickey Mouse" and "Popeye," which was greatly enjoyed. It was presented on the new large screen which allowed all of the large audience to see.

The unexpectedly large attendance taxed the seating capacity arrangements which had been provided, but the site selected allowed all to see the program presented, although several hundred were forced to stand. Suitable arrangements will be made for future community nights to take care of any sized crowd without the inconvenience of standing during the program. Community Nights at Hasbrouck are held every Wednesday night and are cordially invited to attend.

Plans Completed For Dollar Day, August 18, Large Crowd Expected

Kingston Business Men's Association Makes Plans To Serve Customers Throughout Ulster County on Dollar Day.

Byron S. Chatham, reporting for the special committee in charge of arrangements for Kingston's coming Dollar Day, gave final details at the regular monthly meeting of the Kingston Business Men's Association held at the Governor Clinton Hotel this morning.

Mr. Chatham reported for Leonard H. Beers, chairman of the committee, who is away on vacation.

Arrangements have been completed for what is expected to be the biggest August Dollar Day—the date is August 18—yet held in Kingston. The committee announced that display material could be secured from Secretary Albert Flanagan, at the Flanagan store on Wall street. This includes window cards, banners, price cards, etc. In addition signs to be carried on automobile bumpers have been secured and may be had at either the Penney or Kinney stores on Wall street.

The eight-page advertising circular, of which 30,000 will be distributed, are being delivered to the Western Union by The Freeman job printing department today. The circulars, which will supplement newspaper advertising, will be distributed throughout Ulster and in parts of Delaware and Greene counties, also throughout the city of Kingston.

Plans Also Discussed For Annual Fall Opening To Take Place The First of September.

The question of the annual fall opening was also brought up and plans suggested by the special events committee were discussed at some length.

It is proposed to have the opening in the first part of September, fitting it up with the dedication of the new lighting system. A feature suggested by the committee and approved by the members present at the meeting this morning was the offering of three cups—two gold cups and a silver cup—for the best decorated window at the time of the fall opening.

It is planned to secure judges from neighboring cities to make the awards in order to avoid the least trace of favoritism.

Another suggestion, which seemed to meet with favor and which was referred to the committee, was to offer prizes to the general public on the night of the fall opening. The plan is for the association to furnish coupons to its members which will be distributed without cost. Prizes will be donated by the merchants of the association.

The members agreed that it was not worth while to open the stores for business on fall opening night. The plan was tried out last year, but results were far from satisfactory. A number of the members present at the meeting stated that but little business was done, not nearly enough to warrant the trouble and expense involved.

Al King presented to the meeting the merits of a circular reflector sign to be placed on private properties along the highways. The sign would urge people to shop in Kingston and could also be made up to indicate miles to the city. The matter was referred to the booster committee.

President Tetzlaff called attention to the questionnaire which has been printed on the front page of the Dollar Day circular. People receiving this circular are urged by the Association to fill out the questionnaire and either mail it to the Kingston Business Men's Association, Governor Clinton Hotel, or drop it into boxes which are to be provided in the stores of the member merchants.

Seek Missing Convicts
Dannemora, N. Y., Aug. 5 (AP)—State Police searched the north country today for two escaped Clinton Prison convicts. The men were William R. Garrow, of Clinton county, serving a short term for first degree burglary, and Peter Tarbell, St. Lawrence county Indian who has served six years of a 10-year term for forgery. Warden Thomas H. Murphy said they escaped from a gang on the prison farm.

Hiked Off Parade Grounds.
Newport, R. I., Aug. 5 (AP)—The 600 student soldiers at the CMC camp at Fort Adams took their annual eight-mile hike today, but the netter put foot outside the camp. Cup race night-several cars so jammed highway about this city that army officers had the soldiers march back and forth on the parade grounds until they had finished an "overland hike."

Plans Made to Evacuate All American Citizens; Chiang Kai-Shek Rallies Chinese

Loyalists Defeat Franco's Moors On Teruel Front

Dendaye, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Aug. 5 (AP)—An insurgent force, mostly white-turbaned Moors, was reported today to have been shattered in hand-to-hand combat on the Teruel front.

In another theatre of the Spanish war, the Bay of Discay of the north, the insurgent gunboat Dato was reported to have sunk a small trawler of unidentified nationality. Insurgent advisers said the boat attempted to run the blockade of the government port, Santander.

The battlefield, about 10 miles southwest of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's lower Aragon base was strewn with the bodies of Moors, a government communiqué declared.

After the government troops swept their foe from heights yesterday in the Punta Lazaro sector, field guns were dragged into place and heavy fire was turned on the insurgent position near Arroyo Frio, a small stream.

The Moors, still in their native headgear, wore the khaki uniform of Franco's legions. They are perhaps the fiercest warriors under the insurgent banner.

A large quantity of insurgent arms and munitions was said to have been captured in the Javalon sector and near El Cuervo, to the southeast.

The contest for the strategic heights was viewed by government commanders as illustrating the resistance to Franco's three-week offensive has been stiffened.

The reorganized government force was fanned out north of an improved highway in Cuenca, the provincial capital, digging in for defensive operations. If Franco's mechanized forces reach this highway they might quickly sweep into Cuenca.

While the government contended the Javalon mountain action had blocked insurgent thrusts from Arroyo Frio and Teruel, a nearby field base, insurgent advisers reaching the French border said Franco's troops had thrust into the Muela de San Juan mountains.

Reporting on the Asturian front, in northern Spain, the insurgent communiqué claimed a decisive defeat of a government force near Caceres in which it said more than 200 bodies were left on the battlefield.

Government efforts to disorganize Franco's upper Aragon forces brought successful bombing raids on airports near Soria and Zaragoza. The airman fought off an insurgent squadron and dropped explosives and more than 30 grounded planes at the two fields.

Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $170,409,528.54; expenditures, $704,317,437.25, (including $211,951,366.26 of emergency expenditures); excess of expenditures, $233,907,908.74. Gross debt, $26,716,115,026.22, an increase of $1,119,647.09 over the previous day. Gold assets, $12,459,636,185.77, including $1,228,214,440.27 in active gold.

Amelia's Scarf Not Enough Evidence For Putnam So Bronx Janitor Is Jailed

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—A brown and white scarf worn by Amelia Earhart was not evidence enough for George Putnam that his aviatrix wife was still alive, "saved by an arms running vessel from a little island near New Guinea."

Consequently Wilbur Rothar, Bronx janitor, was in jail today on a charge of attempted extortion. Acting District Attorney Harold W. Hastings said he has a signed confession obtained by Rhea Whitley, agent in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, that Rothar invented the rescue story to extort $2,000 from Putnam.

The scarf blew into Rothar's hands three years ago at Roosevelt Field as Rothar watched Miss Earhart land a plane. The janitor kept it for a souvenir.

Possession of the scarf led, Hastings said, to fabrication of an entirely fictitious story that the ship on which Rothar said he was running arms to Spain, discovered a wrecked plane, the body of a man (ostensibly Fred Noonan, navigator who was lost with Miss

Bookwalter New Secretary of Boys Work at City "Y"

E. T. BOOKWALTER

Ellis T. Bookwalter, who has had considerable experience in work among the boys, has been engaged to fill the position of boys' work secretary at the local Y. M. C. A. and will assume his duties on September 1.

Mr. Bookwalter has served the Y. M. C. A. in Gloversville as associate boys' work secretary, where he made an excellent record. Later he has been serving with the Amsterdam Y. M. C. A. where a leader was needed to carry on the duties of the director of the Y. M. C. A. Boys' Club. Because of his experience the National Youth Administration in Albany selected him to head up the work as director of the new plan, with his headquarters in Amsterdam, where for the past year he has been doing a good work.

Mr. Bookwalter is a graduate of the Marietta College in Ohio. During his college years he served as steward and was also affiliated with the Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity. On the campus he was a member of the Players Club and specialized in the building of sets for the plays, and also participated in several local talent productions.

The ability of Secretary Bookwalter in working with all groups of boys is demonstrated in the number of activities which he has organized such as Hobby Clubs; helped promote the Gloversville and Amsterdam boys' camps at Lake Pleasant in the Adirondacks, and organized hobby groups at the Eastern "Y" camp.

Mr. Bookwalter will take up the work at the local "Y" which was carried on by Neland H. Fuller for seven years and which had been carried on during the past eight months by Francis Phillips of this city.

Bloodhounds Find Body

Babylon, N. Y., Aug. 5 (AP)—Precisely at the spot where bloodhounds led them, State Police and Firemen early today recovered the body of 2-year-old Tommy Chasas from a small lake near his home.

The boy, son of Peter Chasas, a fishing boat captain, wandered off of his front yard early last night and apparently fell into the lake, which was dragged all night before the body was brought to the surface.

China "Will Fight to the Death" Declares "Strongman" Generalissimo to Special Meeting of His Ministers.

Shanghai, Aug. 5 (AP)—United States consular officials in all China organized the whole American population for the exigency of evacuation (taught while China's generalissimo, Chiang Kai-Shek, suddenly proclaimed: "We will fight to the death.")

By night fall the month-old undeclared war brought these developments.

1. Columns of motorized Japanese troops rolled north to halt a Chinese advance from behind China's great wall.

2. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, China's "strongman" leader of the central government, flew to Kuling to tell the nation's chief educators that China will resist the Japanese advance "even though it means fighting inadequately prepared and to the death."

3. American missionaries, recalling previous Japanese conquests, feared Japanese domination of North China would wipe out missionary and education work representing millions of dollars in American investments, and years of the hard toil.

Similar Committees.
4. Consul General Clarence Gauss at Shanghai directed formation of an American "strongman" emergency committee to safeguard lives of 4,000 Americans there. Similar committees were started by the 2,000 Americans in Chekiang and Anhwei Provinces, and by officials elsewhere.

5. General Chiang met with his ministers and army commanders in emergency session at Nanking after his flight to Kuling.

6. In Tokyo the Japanese war minister told parliament he is preparing further "punitive measures" against Chinese, and warned the Japanese diet to be prepared for an emergency session to provide additional funds.

Automobiles carried Japanese troops through Peiping to the north toward heavily fortified Chinese positions at Nankow pass. The Japanese reported their warplanes were bombing Chinese troops near Kalgan to halt advance into Hopeh.

Photographers Beaten.
As the columns moved through Peiping, two American photographers were beaten over the head and jostled to prevent them from taking pictures. They were Sheridan F. Abbott, 23-year-old New Yorker, and Bonny Powell, news reel cameraman.

General Chiang's declaration before China's educators reiterated his stand of two weeks ago, when he told them China was prepared to "face the worst" in the north-China hostilities with Japan.

The "strongman" acknowledged overwhelming handicaps in the struggle, but declared Nanking was "swamped with nationwide indications" of a determination to resist further Japanese encroachment.

He said the "spontaneous response" indicated a unified China stood behind the government's position, from which "there is no turning back."

The government has plans, he said, which "it believes will enable us to strike effectively when the time to show our hand has arrived."

American missions in North China which missionaries feared might be obliterated if the crisis spreads are those of Catholic, Methodist, Presbyterian and Adventist Churches and the American Board of Missions.

Schools whose existence were believed endangered included the Rockefeller-Peking Union Medical College, Catholic University, and Yenching University. In Hopeh province alone American missionary property includes 21 hospitals and 761 churches.

Preparing for Advance.
Peiping, August 5 (AP)—Highly mechanized columns of Japanese troops were rolling north today to halt a surprise Chinese advance from behind the 2,000-yard old ramparts of the great wall.

The motorized columns were moving through Peiping, and armed trains from the Japanese headquarters city of Pienhsien were bringing new contingents of troops and equipment.

The main body of the Japanese advance was reported 20 miles north of Peiping, flinging through the low-lying hills to the heavily fortified Chinese positions at Nankow Pass. The Japanese troops were but 10 miles from the great wall which Peiping's rulers built before the Christian era to keep out the fierce northern hordes.

Gold Embedded in Rock

Disolved With Mercury

An ancient process that is used for obtaining gold where the metal is embedded in solid rock consists of dissolving the metal from the crushed rock with mercury. This method, known as amalgamation, was invented by the Romans, states a writer in the Chicago Tribune.

The process of amalgamation consists essentially of grinding gold-bearing rock, mercury, and water to a thin paste, which is then allowed to flow over mercury coated copper plates. Gold and mercury readily combine to form an alloy, as anyone knows who has ever spilled mercury on a piece of jewelry. The gold granules do not immediately liquify in the mercury, but rather swell and become soft like rice in boiling water; and this alloy, together with adhering mercury, sticks to the mercury-coated copper plates, from which it is scraped off. It is then compressed in canvas sacks which squeeze out the surplus mercury, leaving a pasty mass of about equal parts of gold and mercury. This is then strongly heated in retorts so that the mercury is driven off as a vapor, leaving the gold.

The first Pullman dining car was constructed in 1865.

GEYSER SPOUTS IN YELLOWSTONE LAKE

Strange Phenomenon Adds to Wonders of Park.

Yellowstone Park, Wyo. — The pent-up energy which underlies Yellowstone National park found a new vent early this summer in the form of a new geyser which has sprung up within the confines of Yellowstone lake.

Ranger naturalists this spring heard strange rumblings only a few feet from shore in the West Thumb area of the lake. After giving off some steam and emitting sounds similar to gigantic hammering, the hot spring threw water into the air to a height of approximately 60 feet.

Dr. C. Max Bauer, park naturalist who has made a study of the strange phenomenon, is unable to predict whether a new permanent geyser has started or whether the water spout is only temporary. It has erupted sufficiently during the summer, however, to indicate that it may continue for some time.

The geyser is particularly unusual, according to Dr. Bauer, because the crater is completely under water.

Rocks have been scattered about along the shoreline near the crater, and trees on the bank within the immediate vicinity have been killed. The shoreline has been badly torn up for a space of nearly 50 feet. No danger to buildings or equipment is foreseen by ranger naturalists in the area.

Because new geysers are constantly appearing and old ones are constantly ceasing to play, Dr. Bauer will not say whether the new lake phenomenon will take its place with the more than 200 active craters within Yellowstone National park.

Texas Woman Takes Her Place Among Trappers
Eagle Pass, Texas.—A slight young woman, mother of a seven-year-old daughter, has become the leading woman southwest trapper.

She is Mrs. Bessie Davies Kennedy. Her husband, Robert, is a state-paid trapper of mountain lions, wolves, coyotes and bobcats. He is recognized as the best in his profession, and his catch of 168 coyotes in a single month still is the record.

Mrs. Kennedy surprised this town early last March by hauling in a huge mountain lion on the running board of her dust-covered car. Less than two weeks later she came in with another—a feat that few men have equaled.

The Kennedys live in Maverick county and trap in the "Indio" country—a 100-mile square area notorious for its wild animals and its lack of trails. Most of the area is owned by the Indio ranch, and few improvements have been made since the Spanish conquistadors established the ranch's boundary three centuries ago.

The Kennedys were married in 1928 at Crystal city. They moved to Maverick county in 1934, and began trapping. Their daughter, Bessie, is in school at La Pryor, 45 miles northeast of Eagle Pass.

St. Louis Cafe Picketed Since June Back in 1933
St. Louis.—What is believed to be a record for continuous picketing has been established here at the strikebound Bevo restaurant.

Waitresses were called out by the union on June 9, 1933, when Elmer Telthorst, proprietor, refused to negotiate with the union. For three years two pickets were on duty each day, but recently only one picket has been on duty.

Edward Flore, international president of the waitresses' union, has come here from Buffalo, N. Y., to talk to Telthorst and a federal agent. But Telthorst has remained firm in his refusal to deal with the union.

Union officials, however, say the picketing will continue as long as Telthorst operates the restaurant, unless he capitulates. Pickets are paid $1 an hour.

DOCTOR ARRAIGNED

Dr. Ila Gallant, fashionable woman's physician of Boston, is shown leaving the Brookline, Mass., district court after pleading innocent to a charge of "unlawfully exhibiting and offering for sale drugs, medicine and instruments intended to prevent conception." Her arraignment followed raids on Boston birth control clinics. She was released in $500 bail.

"Mummies" Adopt Autos
Lethbridge, Alta.—The famous "mummies" of Canada have abandoned horses in favor of swift automobiles to trail rustlers in southern Alberta.

University Trailer Camp
Kent, O.—A camp for automobile trailers is being built on the campus of Kent State university for the use of summer session students.

Rats Are Friends of Montana Miners
Zortman, Mont.—The Piper of Hamelin with his magic flute may be welcome in most cities and towns to drive out rats, but there is one spot in the United States where he would be totally unwanted.

Under strict orders from the management, the employees in the mines near this small mining community protect the hundreds of rats that scurry from tunnel to tunnel and regard them as their friends.

The rodents have saved many miners from injury and possible death because of their keen sense to detect a cave-in.

IN 1950 MAN NOW DEAD WILL MAKE 50 MILLIONAIRES

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—Some time after 1950 a man now dead will create approximately 50 millionaires.

He is William Rockefeller, brother of the late John D., who died in 1922 and left the principal of a $50,000,000 estate to be distributed among his great-grandchildren.

The estate, growing in capital value at a million-a-year clip, is now estimated by Surrogate James A. Foley at $63,713,889. In addition, since 1922, the estate has paid $9,514,834 in interest to William Rockefeller's four children—only one of whom survives—and 14 grandchildren.

The brother of America's oil king before his death decreed that his estate should be kept intact for division among his great-grandchildren. His children and his grandchildren, meanwhile, were to enjoy the interest.

Industry Returns To Mingo Hollow

The ghosts of the industries of former years, which have long inhabited the tumbledown buildings of old Mingo Hollow, are due for a rude awakening as the Callanan Road Improvement Company of South Bethlehem begins operations in the quarrying of rock for building purposes at the entrance to the Hollow.

The revival of an industry in this little valley brings back memories of the days when the James Lime and Cement Mill was in operation, the Zoller ice house was the scene of much activity, and during the World War, the Nitro Powder Company, under the direction of Emanuel Metzger, worked feverishly to produce munitions for war supplies.

Into a wooded hollow between the towering hills, which once resounded with the bustle of working men, and later which echoed only the call of animals prowling about the ruins of former places of business, a new concern has come with plans to once again make the woods ring.

The Callanan Company, with Orville Van Alstyne as superintendent, is busy engaged in the installation of a traveling crane and conveyor system, preparatory to quarrying rock from the hillside for use in building operations. A large Bucyrus-Erie power shovel has been moved into the hollow, and a 42-inch rock crusher, one section of which weighs 30 tons, is being installed on the property. A pile-driver is chugging away in the Rondout creek, building a new dock front to facilitate the shipping of the rock by barge to all ports along the Hudson river and to the New York market.

According to Superintendent Van Alstyne the quarry will begin operations in about three weeks and will employ approximately 50 men. A belt-conveyor unit will carry the crushed rock from the crusher to the dock where it will be loaded into barges.

The work of getting the location ready for operation has been pushed forward. Trees and underbrush were cleared, drilling machines were located above the rock ledge, a dock front had to be built and an old roadway running into the place had to be made suitable for heavy travel. One heavy drilling machine was moved up from South Rondout across the West Shore tracks to a point directly above the high rock ledge.

An official of the company stated that due to the fine quality of rock and the adequate facilities for shipment, there could be little doubt that the industry would flourish, as the demand for such rock for building purposes, including road construction, was quite large at the present time.

Dodo, Now Extinct, Was of Massive, Clumsy Form

The dodo was a bird, of the island of Mauritius, allied to the pigeons, but unable to fly. It was as large as a swan, of massive and clumsy form, with short, stout legs and feet, and a hooked bill much larger than its head. Its wings were rudimentary and its tail composed of short, curly feathers. Some early writers say that its body was covered with black down, with bare skin around the eyes and forehead; others, that the color of its breast was like that of a young pheasant and of its back, dun or deer-color. The dodo built a nest on the ground and laid but one egg about as large as that of a penguin. Its food was probably mangoes and other tropical fruits.

The dodo has become extinct, within two centuries, according to a writer in the Indianapolis News.

It was discovered by Vasco da Gama in 1497, and is mentioned by various voyagers of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. In the seventeenth century it was much used for food by the crews of vessels touching at Mauritius. The Dutch began to colonize the island in 1644, and the dodos soon were exterminated, largely by the dogs, cats and rats which devoured the eggs and the young in the nests. After the French took possession of Mauritius in 1715, the dodo no longer was mentioned as a living bird. All that remains now of the bird are some rude drawings by early voyagers; several paintings, from one of which in the British museum is made the illustration seen in most books of natural history, and the head and feet, preserved in the Ashmolean museum, Oxford. Large numbers of its bones have been recovered from swamps, so that the skeleton is well known.

Woodpeckers Attack Dead Trees

The woodpecker has short, sturdy legs and his four sharp-clawed toes, two pointing forward, two backward. With them he clings tightly to a tree, balancing his body with his stiff tail. That allows him "free wheeling" for his chisel-shaped beak. No insect can escape him. After digging to a bug, his long, round tongue cleans out niches like an anteater's. Contrary to popular belief, woodpeckers do little harm to trees. They seldom attack a healthy tree, but they do clean diseased ones of harmful insects.

Volume Is Returned to Library After 50 Years

Columbia, Mo. — When a book, "Germania Kalender," was checked out of the University of Missouri library in 1884, the student forgot to return the volume.

The name of the borrower was destroyed when the main building of the university burned in 1892. The long-missing book recently was found in St. Louis and was returned to the library.

The librarian figures that overdue fines on the book would total $945, but no effort will be made to collect.

Eggs Like Peanuts
Cleveland. — Mrs. J. R. Dean owns a hen which regularly lays eggs the size and shape of a peanut.

"Sea" Series Started in Submarine Names

Washington. — After a careful search for names befitting Uncle Sam's undersea craft, the navy assigned Sea Dragon, Sea Lion, Sea Raven and Sea Wolf to four new submarines hitherto designated merely by number. The navy explained that a sea dragon is a small British marine fish, the sea raven is an American cousin, the sea wolf a European sea perch also known as the wolf fish and the sea elephant, and the sea lion is familiar to all Californians.

EXTORTION TRIED

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Aug. 4 — Robin Witterau and David Ballantine took most of the prizes offered in the pet show of the library fair. The two small boys entered a number of pets of all sorts. The prize for the most unusual animal was awarded to Mrs. Eleanor Cannon for two llamas which she entered in the show. She also entered a huge hog, weighing nearly a thousand pounds. Wilfred Bronson, Woodstock author and naturalist, was the judge who awarded the prizes.

Mrs. Allan Dean Elwyn is visiting her mother in New York. The baby, Larry, is being cared for in her absence by Ruth Houst.

Broadway: "Ever Since Eve." With Marion Davies bolstered by Bob Montgomery and with the two of them aided through a trite story by the addition of such comedy stars as Allen Jenkins, Patsy Kelly, Frank McHugh and Louise Fazenda, this tale of a writer who does his best work under romantic conditions is adequate entertainment and fairly funny most of the way. A Warner Brothers picture under the Cosmopolitan banner and directed by Lloyd Bacon.

Kingston: "Easy Living" and "Meet the Misses." A problem story and a comedy are the double feature offerings at the Kingston, the first with Edward Arnold in another of his weighty character assignments with Jean Arthur, the second a hilarious comedy achievement with the stage stars Victor Moore and Helen Broderick.

Orpheum: "Prince and the Pauper." Here is a costume picture of real merit, the story of two little boys, one a king and the other a beggar until they change places and almost alter the course of history. It is a swashbuckling picture, alive with intrigue, fighting and romance and it has been produced with lavish taste. Errol Flynn and Claude Rains are among the adult members of a large cast of players.

Tomorrow.

Broadway: Same. Kingston: Same.

Orpheum: "Clarence" and "Bold Caballero." Roscoe Karns and Eleanor Whitney are to be seen in the first of the Orpheum efforts, the story of a human worm who turns much to the delight of any audience. "Bold Caballero" is the other attraction with Robert Livingston.

By Associated Press

Afterthought

Raleigh, N. C.—County Clerk W. H. Sawyer got this letter from a woman whose name he withheld:

"Will you please let me know whether or not I am divorced, for if I am not divorced I am in a hell of a fix. I have just got married again."

Sawyer, after checking the records, eased the lady's mind.

The Court Scores

Beaver, Pa.—Raymond J. Eback pleaded guilty to writing "numbers" before Judge Henry H. Wilson.

"This is where the court makes a hit," the judge said, fining Eback $500.

Memory Expert

Lincoln — Don't make rash promises to Ogden Pickens, 34, because he's a man who remembers. Last February he was arraigned on a charge of breaking into an automobile in which he claimed part ownership. A few weeks ago County Attorney Max G. Towle told Pickens he intended to drop the charge and would release him from jail about August 1.

Pickens waited until August 3 and walked away from the jail. Towle said he wouldn't look for him.

Doctors could find neither a scratch nor a bruise on Wayne.

A "Fine" Time

Swing Days Big Events to Children of Koreans

Korean children have many games that are different from ours but little girls in Korea enjoy Swing day best of all special things to do. Swing day comes every year and is a holiday for children, notes a writer in the Washington Star.

Swing day originated from a Korean legend that has been handed down from long ago generations.

In the olden times there was a charming young princess who loved a prince of her own country. But her father, the emperor, married her off to a wealthier suitor from a far land who took her away to live there with him. Her husband knew she was homesick for her native land, and on a high hill outside the palace he put up a swing for her.

Once a year the princess was allowed to swing there all day. She would swing as high as possible and just catch a glimpse of her native land from the air. All year she would wait for this one day to think of her own country.

Korean girls honor the memory of the Swing Princess one day a year. Swings are erected on very long ropes that will fly quite high, on the hilltops. The girls line up and take turns at swinging. Swing day is celebrated this way all over Korea and the homesick little princess is the adopted patron of all Korean girls on that day.

Camp Preumaker Concludes Season

Camp Preumaker, Glenrie, Aug. 3.—Fifty campers packed up for home today at the end of the regular season at Camp Preumaker, the Y. M. C. A. Camp at Glenrie. This past week, with a record attendance, marks the conclusion of a successful camp under the direction of Charles Henke, physical director of the Kingston Y. M. C. A.

The work that has been done at camp this year has been the finest yet, reports James Scott, chairman of the Kingston Y. M. C. A. Camp Committee. It is not the easiest task for a new man to take over the responsibilities of a camp, immediately following seven years of experience on the part of our former boys' work secretary, Neland H. Fuller. "We are proud of the record which Charles Henke our physical director has made," states General Secretary, Robert L. Sisson, Chairman James Scott was assisted by the following members of the Camp Committee in administration of camping during the past year: B. C. Van Ingen, Chester A. Baltz, George Lowe, Arthur Quimby, Frank McCausland, Fred Van Deusen, and C. S. Van Valkenburgh.

Sunday night's final "Radio Broadcast" at campfire witnessed the recognition of three outstanding campers of the season, who were awarded prizes by Mr. Henke, Fred Storms of Kingston chosen the outstanding camper in the judgment of both campers and leaders, was presented with a combined hunting knife and hatchet. The award was sponsored by Robert Southard, secretary of the Automobile Dealers Association of Kingston.

John Kaufman of Saugerties was awarded a hatchet as the cleanest camper. In view of the fact that mannerliness and cleanliness have been stressed by the camp staff during the season. Sonny Fator of Jamaica was named the best worker in the Crafts Department, and awarded a finely worked coconut shell Indian head, given by Mr. Hansen, construction engineer for the post office addition in Kingston.

The Camp Crafts Department, at work every week day during the season, has to show for its work numerous articles made by the campers. These include hats, belts, moccasins, stools and articles in metal. The Indian lore department, under Arthur Terrence, Onondaga Indian youth, provided rings, bracelets, and other Indian articles for the boys to make. Crafts were in charge of Francis Phillips, assistant camp director, who was assisted by William Grothkopf. Roger Salzmann had charge of nature work.

Campfires, in charge of Mr. Phillips and Harry Gumaer, were conducted several times a week. Each Sunday night the camp newspaper, with Mr. Gumaer as adviser, presented a "Radio Broadcast" featuring musical numbers and news flashes. At the final broadcast an orchestra of trumpets, clarinet, and piano provided the musical selections.

Waterfront activities, directed by Coach G. Warren Kias of Kingston High School, included regular swims and boating, in addition to a camp swimming meet held the third week. Winners of this meet were taken to Williams Lake Sunday to witness the water carnival there. Assisting Mr. Kias were Alva Bruce and Robert Van Valkenburgh.

The attention given to cabin inspection this year resulted in general improvements to each of the cabin grounds. Cabin 4, under Roger Salzmann, led the field with rustic arches and fenced rock gardens in front of the building, and Cabins 3 and 5, under Mr. Phillips and Mr. Gumaer, followed suit.

Camp chef this year was Mr. Chester Buley of Boiceville in her seventh year at camp. Assisting her was Jacob Myers.

Tonight at 7 o'clock at Forsyth Park Community Night will be held and will feature an inter-club bicycle softball game. This novelty is patterned after donkey baseball. Parents are cordially invited to attend. Campfire will follow the softball game and Tyler Hughes will play the harmonica for the group singing.

The boys and girls of the park have started to train for the relay to be held August 12 at Hasbrouck Park. Clark, Fuller, Sickles and Cunningham are among those who will represent Forsyth at the meet.

The older girls have been preparing for a softball game with the Barmann girls on next Tuesday.

The younger girls have been planning for a marionette show. The play to be given will be an original one, written by Lenore Felen and Ruth Strauss. The costumes are being created by Dorothy Brown, Jean Comstock and Catherine Rafferty. The stage settings are under the direction of Jacqueline Leininger, Ardath Kersta and Mary Carlson. The program will be given for the mothers and friends of the young producers.

FRUIT GROWERS TO DISCUSS ADVERTISING
Geneva, N. Y., Aug. 5 (AP)—New York state fruit growers discussed today an advertising campaign intended to increase the consumption of apples.

Meeting in an all-day session, the State Horticultural Society was to hear such a campaign described by D. S. Pickett of Ames, Ia., president of the American Pomological Society.

Last year, fruit growers and handlers of apples in various parts of the country, including New York and New England, organized for promotional activities.

The program also included tours of inspection of the State Agricultural Experiment Station orchards, vineyards and laboratories.

Among the speakers scheduled for the meeting was Holton V. Noyes, new commissioner of agriculture and markets, who is making his first appearance before the society.

The eastern meeting of the society will be held Saturday at the Brown Farm in Rockland county, with speakers including United States Senators Royal S. Copeland of New York, Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, and John G. Townsend, Jr., of Delaware.

Young Women 'Invading' Navajo Indian Territory

Window Rock, Ariz.—The board of adventurers who pioneered the West nearly a century ago have disappeared on the vast Navajo Indian reservation here, but in their place have appeared young women.

About 150 of these young women, isolating themselves in one of the most remote regions in North America, teach the white man's knowledge to the red man's children in 57 schools scattered over the 16,000,000-acre reservation.

The lives of the young teachers, however, are not so packed with hardships as were those of their predecessors.

At Chin Lee, a tiny hamlet 97 miles from a railroad, they live in an old building called the Club House. Their rooms are comfortable. Good food is served to the teachers, who share their dining room with reservation laborers and other employees.

They enjoy rad os, tennis, badminton, pool and horseback riding.

When sufficient musical talent can be recruited they dance in the recreation hall. Dancing partners generally are Indian traders or visitors. Their most severe test comes during the winter months when heavy snows often cut them off from civilization for weeks or months.

English School to Train Dogs for Conversation

London—A school designed to teach dogs to read, do arithmetic sums and carry on conversations with human beings is to be opened here this fall.

The sponsor is Miss L. Lindaf, Hageby, founder and honorary director of the Animal Defense and Anti-vivisection society. Her purpose is to convince people that dogs, and the other higher animals, are not just "things," but beings capable of independent thought and spiritual feelings, very much like human beings. This would go far toward ending thoughtlessness and cruelty to animals, she believes.

Printing of Bank Notes Takes More Money Now

Washington.—Paper money costs more these days.

To print a thousand sheets of Federal Reserve notes at the Government Printing office now involves an expense of about $97.

In June, 1935, the cost was $86. Under Section 16 of the Federal Reserve Act the cost of issuing Federal Reserve notes must be met by the Federal Reserve banks.

ORPHANAGE GETS "KIDNAPED" BOY

Donald Horst, the bone of contention between Mr. and Mrs. Otto Horst (above shown with him), and John Regan and Lydia Nelson was taken to St. Vincent's Orphanage in Chicago to await disposition by the court. Regan and Miss Nelson assert that Donald was born to them out of wedlock. The boy was abducted from the Horst home in Chicago by the latter pair who later gave him up voluntarily.

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, August 5.—A pleasant time is anticipated at the Dorcas festival to be held on the Reformed Church lawn this evening. A delicious creamed chicken supper will be served in the church house at 5:30. There will be plenty of good things to eat at the various booths, fancy articles to buy, mystery booth for the children, etc. A pleasing entertainment will be given at 8 o'clock.

AWAIT MOTHER'S DEATH TO DELIVER CHILD

Philadelphia, Aug. 5 (AP)—Physicians at the Philadelphia General Hospital stood by today waiting for Mrs. Mary Boccassini to die so they may deliver an expectant baby.

Mrs. Boccassini, 27, is suffering from Tuberculous Meningitis for which they said there is no cure.

The doctors told the husband, Dominick, of the situation and that they would perform an operation as soon as death came to the mother to save the child. They hoped the baby would arrive before the mother passed away.

The husband objected, telling the doctors that if the wife must die to let the baby go with her.

The physicians sought legal advice and the matter was taken before Judge Harry E. Kalodner. He decided that when the time comes the operation can be performed. "Even an unborn baby has its rights," he said.

The ministry is the favorite career in the family of the Rev. E. U. Hafermann, pastor of the Evangelical church of Blue Springs, Mo. Among his relatives, in-laws, sons, parents, uncles, nephews and grandnephews, 70 became Evangelical or Lutheran ministers in the U. S. or in Germany.

Community Night At Barmann Park

Over 500 people attended the Community Night program at Barmann Park on Wednesday evening and watched Fred L. Van Deusen, local master of magic, present an interesting program of illusions and tricks.

Mr. Van Deusen presented his program in center field amidst a huge semi-circle of cheering youngsters and adults. He was extended a rising vote of thanks at the close of his entertaining program.

Chief Al Mayone and his officers were again on the job and did an excellent piece of work in handling the crowd. During the evening the Focus, one of the playground newspapers at the park, was distributed by Editor Vince Costello and his assistants. Next week a flag dedication ceremony and pie eating contest is planned by the directors. The Barmann Park council composed of the parents of the children have raised the money to purchase the flag for the park and are planning to present the flag to Mayor Heitselman, through whose efforts there is supervised play in the playgrounds, at next week's Community Night.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER

New York, Aug. 5 (AP).—Low-priced mining issues developed activity on the upside in today's stock market but many so-called leaders were unable to attract followings.

Trends were spotty near the final hour and dealings light. Transfers were at the rate of about 850,000 shares.

Sliding tendencies exhibited by steels and motors was a fly in the optimistic ointment. A handful of utilities and coppers did a bit better.

Inclined to tilt forward the greater part of the session were Consolidated Edison, North American, Electric Power & Light, American Water Works, Cerro de Pasco, St. Joseph Lead, American Smelting, American Metal, Inspiration Copper, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, U. S. Pipe & Foundry, Sharon Steel, National Supply, Canada Dry, Revere Brass and Madison Square Garden.

Holding their own were Pennsylvania, Southern Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio, Illinois Central, Chesapeake & Ohio, Texas Corp., Socony Vacuum, Armstrong Cork and Commonwealth & Southern. The going was difficult for U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, Motor Products, Macy, Oliver Farm, Kennecott, Western Union, Douglas Aircraft, Goodyear, U. S. Rubber, Great Northern, N. Y. Central and Santa Fe.

Railroads Show Gain; Renewed Demand for Steel

The two-months' negotiations between the railroads and representatives of the non-operating unions were closed last night when an agreement was reached on a wage increase of five cents per hour. The unions asked 20 cents. This will increase carrier pay-rolls $88,000,000 annually on the basis of 1936 pay-rolls; it amounts to about a nine per cent raise. The increase represents more than 60 per cent of the net income of the roads, after charges, as reported in 1936. The outlook for a settlement of the controversy had an effect upon the market yesterday and rails showed a gain of 1.18 on the Dow-Jones average, going up to 53.38.

The industrial average was up 0.89 yesterday, to 186.80, but utilities took a slight drop. Corporate bonds were a little higher on average; governments were quiet.

With a renewed demand for steel reported in Cleveland, Iron Age states that there have been new inquiries for railroad equipment, there is indication of foreign buying and activity in farm equipment is being reflected in new orders.

Two farm equipment companies, Oliver and Minneapolis-Moline Power Equipment, show profits for six months better than those for the previous full year.

Probable increase in automobile prices, in which Ford has already led the way, is not expected to more than cover half the increase in costs which the industry must meet. Such increase, however, would substantially improve the profit position of the companies.

Packard reports July deliveries of 8,438 units, up 113 per cent over a year ago.

Freight car loadings for the week ended July 31 are estimated at 780,000, a better than seasonal increase.

Production of zinc in the U. S. is reported almost at the 1929 level, with domestic producers running practically at capacity.

Consumption is at a record high and one importer is reported to have put an order on the London market for 1,000 tons.

Republic Steel earnings, according to Chairman Girdler, are rapidly returning to pre-strike levels.

Pig lead was advanced one-half cents a pound, to 6.25 cents, at New York.

Despite a record volume of business the first six months of the year, three trans-continental air lines lost more money during that period than during the same period last year. Estimates show a loss of more than $1,600,000 for the period ending June 30, 1937, compared with combined deficits of $526,741 in the like 1936 period.

UAWA members quit work in the Plymouth plant in Detroit, which employs 9,000 workers. The company closed the plant after nine persons were injured in rioting.

Columbia Broadcasting System July time sales were up 53.8 per cent from year ago. Edison Bros. July sales were up 29.16 per cent. Loew's, Inc., declared year-end dividend of $8, making $8.50 for year ending August 31. Atlas Powder voted $1 on common compared with previous 75 cents. Bigelow-Sanford Carpet announced interim payment of $1.75 on common vs. previous 75 cents.

Food Merchants Convention Closes

Directed to selling only to wholesalers resulted in a consensus that they should be so restricted. Once the resolutions were out of the way the annual convention was quickly brought to a close. The last act of the delegates was to install officers for the coming year. The officers and directors immediately went into executive session and began a study of the program for the year.

TAKE WEIGHT OFF TIRED FEET

Loose Fat The Easy Way—Without Starvation Diets, or Back-Breaking, Bending and Rolling Exercises.

If your feet and ankles feel tired and ache all over—because you are carrying too much fat—do something about it. Try the treatment that has helped millions to reduce excess weight.

There's a reason why so many people find losing weight and often times little in reducing the reason, doctors say, is often because a little gland is not working right. All the blood in your body goes through this tiny gland not in times every day. If it doesn't pour into the blood stream about one and one half drops of vital fluid every 45 hours, every people take on ugly fat. This fluid helps Nature to "burn up" excess food and fatty tissue in much the same way as a good "draft" acts in a furnace. Now, physicians combat this condition by feeding this gland the substance it lacks—and millions of pounds of excess fat has been wiped out in this way.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are based on the same method used by doctors. No diet, no waste your time or money striving to reduce with starvation diets or back-breaking exercises. Start the Marmola treatment today that millions have used successfully to get rid of excess fat. The formula is in every box so you know just what you are doing. Don't let it get away from you. Get a box of Marmola today.

Local Death Record

Woodstock, August 5.—Mrs. Odille Aultenburg, of Elizabeth, N. J., died at about three o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Reynolds Hotel. Arrangements were made for sending the body to New Jersey.

The funeral of Mrs. Milton G. Holmes, who died suddenly on Wednesday morning, will be held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. William C. Kingman, 78 Highland avenue, on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will be in Montepose cemetery. The Rev. Dr. Charles G. Ellis, pastor emeritus of the Rondout Presbyterian Church of which she had been an active member for over 60 years, will officiate at the services.

Shokan, Aug. 5.—Word has been received here of the death at Montclair, N. J., of Mrs. Mathilde Kreckler, widow of Thomas Kreckler, who for many years conducted a house wrecking business in New York city. Mrs. Kreckler, whose death resulted from a heart attack, at one time made her home here but during recent years resided in Montclair, using her large estate along the Butternutkill stream as a summer place. She was a woman of quiet tastes whose chief diversion here was found in her flower garden and the improvement of the building and grounds on her property. Mrs. Kreckler leaves two daughters, Mrs. Eleanor Christman, of Connecticut, and Miss Meta Kreckler, of Montclair.

Shokan, August 5.—Funeral services for the Rev. Thomas Braithwaite were held Wednesday afternoon in the Shokan Reformed Church. Officiating clergyman was the Rev. August J. Mans, pastor of the local church. The Rev. John B. Steketee of Kingston and the Rev. Mr. Hayden, pastor of the Congregational Church at Wantagh, L. I., who delivered the eulogy. The Rev. Charles L. Palmer of Kingston was present as a member of the Masonic delegation. Bearers were members of the Olive town board. Included in the congregation were a number of residents of Krumville, where the Rev. Mr. Braithwaite had at one time occupied the pulpit of the Reformed Church. The Rev. Mr. Braithwaite had served 17 years in the pastorate of the Wantagh Congregational Church. He was a kindly man who had a great number of friends throughout the reservoir country.

KINGSTON'S FAME SPREADS FAR INTO THE PACIFIC

A Studebaker car bearing a New York license plate was noted parked on Wall street Wednesday night. It is nothing unusual these days to note license plates from far distant states on cars passing through or stopping in Kingston, about every part of the country being represented at one time or another, as the fame of the Old Colonial city spreads. This is the first indication, however, so far as the writer has noticed, that the Kingston "sphere of influence" has been extended far into the Pacific.

One Killed
Paterson, N. J., Aug. 5 (AP)—At least one man was killed and two score were injured today when an explosion demolished a brick building at a brake lining manufacturing plant and shook houses for blocks around. The one known victim was John Loughrey of Paterson, a workman. Several of the injured were in critical condition and a dozen were retained at a hospital.

Arrest for Petit Larceny Recalls Camp Minobi Case

Edith Kosofsky, 33, of 1344 Union street, Brooklyn, was brought to Kingston Wednesday night following her arrest in Brooklyn on a petit larceny charge. Later she was arraigned before Justice I. C. Barnes of New Paltz, when her attorney, Alfred H. Davis, of New Paltz, asked for a postponement of the hearing and the case was set down for August 16. Meanwhile Miss Kosofsky is being held at the Ulster County jail.

The case is an echo of the Camp Minobi affair at New Paltz in which over 100 children, ranging from 8 to 16 years of age, were turned out on July 11 by order of the State Department of Health, when the state department had declared the camp unsanitary. The Schaeffer store in New Paltz is the complainant in the case against Miss Kosofsky, a check for $50 that did not turn out well when presented for collection, being involved. It is understood that Miss Kosofsky was connected with the camp in some sort of managerial capacity.

Methodist Prayer Meeting.

Jury Drawn In Stone Wall Suit

High Falls, August 5.—The much discussed stone wall lawsuit between J. Roswell Hasbrouck, plaintiff, and H. E. Van Winkle, defendant, of Stone Ridge, reached a deadlock before Justice Oscar Church at High Falls Wednesday night, August 4. All efforts of Justice Oscar Church to bring a settlement were in vain. A jury was drawn and trial set for Thursday, August 13, at 1:30 p. m., at the High Falls fire house. The following jurors were drawn: Jason Beatty, Harry DeWitt, Charles Davis, Festus Yeaple, John H. Palen, Stanley Steen, William Krom, Clifford Basten, Philip Countryman, Ward Christians, Howard Basten, Ernest Jansen.

J. Roswell Hasbrouck claims that a stone wall 531 feet long, four feet wide, four feet high was totally removed; 361 1/2 long, 4 feet wide and 4 feet high partially removed, between his property and the Van Winkle farm.

This will be an interesting trial on August 13.

Los Angeles is teaching its children to appreciate birds by imitating them. A class of 25 youngsters meets twice weekly and rehearses the chirping of sparrows, the piping of quail and other woodland sounds. Two professional whistlers are instructors.

Life is simply a matter of concentration. You are, in the long run, just what you set out to be. You are a composite of the things you say, the books you read, the thoughts you think, the company you keep, and the objectives you desire to achieve.

The portly man was trying to get to his seat at the circus. Fat Man (to a woman)—Paradise, did I step on your foot? Woman (after glancing at the ring)—Possibly so. All the elephants are still out there. You must have.

Alertness is the price of existence.

Wife—I've put your shirts on the clothes horse, Franklin. Franklin—What odds did you get?

EXPLICIT STENOGRAPHER with a past, wants a future.

Not exactly purple past, but a past that includes a good business education and practical experience in dictation and typing. Free, white, Christian, 22, and not so beautiful as to make wives jealous nor yet so unattractive to be disappointing. Now employed, but stymied. Will give it all up and start in again at $15, if there's a future. "At home" Sundays BARRING 6504.—Advertisement in Philadelphia Inquirer.

They were discussing a silver butter dish, which they were going to send to newly married friends:

Wife—What shall we put on the card?

Husband (preoccupied with his paper and coffee)—Oh! Just the usual dope, I suppose; anything you like.

A few moments thought followed, and then she handed him the card. It was inscribed: "For Butter—or Worse".

A friend observes that he sees nothing so bad about saddling future generations with debt. They should pay for the privilege of living then instead of now.

He—I'm a bank examiner. She—Well, I'm no bank!

We are told that one of our best American traits is an "intelligent discontent." But who's going to furnish the intelligence?

He (after being kept waiting by unpunctual fiancée)—Well, I suppose I shouldn't complain; so far you've always got the day and month right.

Faces and Lookin' Glasses

Your face tells me that you're just a tough, don't-care fellow.

My face tells you that I'm just a tough—don't-care fellow.

Because my lookin' glass tells me that I'm just a tough, don't-care fellow.

So your lookin' glass tells you that you're just a tough, don't-care fellow.

My lookin' glass doesn't fool me, but it shows me how I fool you.

Your lookin' glass doesn't fool you, but it shows you how you fool me.

Because lookin' glasses can't see through faces any more than faces can see through lookin' glasses.

And my face can't see through your face any more than your face can see through my face.

Now come on, let's break our lookin' glasses.

And quit lookin' at each other's faces and foolin' each other.

—Charles Sharpe

Washington—In wartime gassing there is protection against tuberculosis, according to George E. Miller in the Chemical Warfare Bulletin.

He quotes the surgeon general of the U. S. report of 1920 that the tuberculosis rate among 70-522 gassed in 1918 was 2.46 per cent.

The same year the rate was 3.50 among those serving in France.

SEE, YOU'LL GET IT.

but not gassed. The next year among the non-gassed Americans in France the tuberculosis rate was 4.30 per thousand soldiers.

He thinks this indicates a "positive preventive effect." He adds that 20 milligrams of mustard gas absorbed quickly into the human system will kill a man.

But that in the war there was one death for each ton and a half of mustard gas.

New Hampshire has a Grange secretary serving her 33d consecutive year and scarcely ever absent from her post during that long period.

Caused by Tired Kidneys
If those gnawing, nagging, painful people blame on cold or flu caused by tired kidneys, and may be treated in the right way.
Kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking acid and poisonous waste out of the urine. If kidneys fail, the waste builds up in the blood, and work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging headaches, rheumatic pains, lumbago, loss of energy, getting up at night, swelling,

If you want to ask your doctor for Dr. Doan's

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD—After going along happily in the belief that a handkerchief was for nose-blowing I had to run into John Macosoud.
Accustomed to the incredible in this town of movie magic, I'd found it difficult to believe that the films actually use technical advice on handkerchiefs. They said Macosoud was the man, and it's true.
When Jackie Cooper played the ragamuffin in "Big Boy," Macosoud was called in to decide, among other things, what type hanky a boy like that would cry into. For Jackie's tears Macosoud ordered a burial square, tattered and filthy, and pocketed his check. More complicated was "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney," not only hankies but table linens passing under his scrutiny. He contributed to "Vogues of 1938," and when Rosita
Diaz makes the Spanish picture, besides the utilitarian variety—supervise hankies, napery, and other linens used.
My visit to his shop—pictures being merely gravy to him—made me realize how far the handkerchief parade has passed me by.
But he was kindly about it, assuring me that only in the past few years has the handkerchief made notable progress.
He has been "linens" all his life, following in family footsteps first taken in Syria. He and his wife have set out to "dramatize
the handkerchief" in Hollywood, where everything, from poodles to pickles, must be "dramatized" or else.
He says there are between 300 and 400 different type of hanky
besides the utilitarian variety—types for all occasions. And handkerchief-consciousness is spreading, in case you too didn't know.
Just for information's sake, I asked him how many different types of hanky a really well-wardrobed man should have, and he thought perhaps a couple of hundred types would do. He talked about movie stars and Hollywood's handkerchief habits.
Handkerchief-collecting has a greater hold on the film famous than you'd suspect. Jeanette Mac-Donald and Joan Blondell date on their collections, and among the men Leslie Howard, Conrad Nagel and George Raft are inveterate hoarders.
Macosoud casually displayed a few little dainties which could be had for a hundred bucks apiece, and when I said "You're kidding," he said no, he was getting some others—$750 each—but mainly for display, he admitted.
No movie star has yet invested in a $100 hanky. He's sold five in nine months, none to movie people. The stars, he observed, were more budget-minded than they used to be. Many will pay $10 to $12 apiece without batting an eye, although Hollywood does not disdain the kind I buy, either.

Leonard's Smash Eighth Inning Wins Game From Newburgh

Patrolman Bill Leonard's mighty blow in the eighth inning of the police ball game with Newburgh, Wednesday afternoon, before 100 or so at the Athletic Field, won the game for the Kingston Police.

Sergeant James V. Simpson's bat tossed a 10-9 win over the City Night Stick Wielders who defeated them earlier in the season.

With the score 9-all, and Motorcycle Officer George Bowers, manager for Freddie Stoudt, Kingston's ace pitcher, on second, Leonard belted one of Sammy's high ones for a double, swinging in Bowers to win the game by the slim margin of one run. Hostilities ceased as soon as Borge dented the rubber to smash the tie.

Scheduled as a seven inning game, the game looked as though it would go into the bag for Newburgh as early as the first stanza, but a rally in the sixth, which netted Chief J. Allan Wood's boys runs saved the day. The run was partially due to the injury of Captain Johnny Corke, catcher, who surrendered his back behind the bat in the fifth to have a smashed finger treated at the Kingston Hospital.

When Johnny left the game, after catching brilliantly up until foul tip from Freddie Stoudt's bat knocked off a fingernail, the score was 8-1. When he returned in the sixth chucker it was 9-9. The scoreboard presented a sorry sight to Corke who had put on a wonderful exhibition, even nipping three runners at second.

Francis Sammons started the fifth with a double. Ed Leonard whiffed the air three times and Len Relyea flew out. Stoudt hit the foul tip that injured Corke, and Lewis went in to catch. He dropped the third strike. Stoudt dashed to second on his error, and Sammons galloped home. Freddie crossed the rubber on Pete Keresman's single.

Kingston's Harvest
Cramer started Kingston's stormy sixth with a single. Stewart was walked. Sammons scurried to first when the catcher dropped his third strike and was allowed to hold the bag. The bases were loaded with no outs. "Chief" Leonard smacked a grounder, sending it through Shaw's legs to score bringing in two runs. Relyea forced a man at second, but Stoudt was favored with a pass. Keresman singled to drive in two more tallies and Bill Leonard brought in two more with a terrific smash through the shortstop, to tie the score.

With two down in the seventh, Ed Leonard doubled to right, but Relyea fanned ending the inning. In the eighth Stoudt singled. George Bowers, running for him, made the route from second to home on Bill Leonard's mighty clout, ending the game in favor of the tossers of Sergeant Simpson, who joyfully walked off the field with the win.

Kingston outbatted the Newburghers by the margin of 12-11, but committed several bad errors, two in the first inning, by Bill Leonard, who more than made up for the miscues with his batting thereafter, especially in the eighth when he brought in the winning run.

Kingston's first run came in the opening inning when Bill Leonard got to first on Foster's error and made the rounds of the bases on Tom McGrane's single and Wes Cramer's fly.

Haigh singled to open Newburgh's four run collection in the first inning. Leonard missed Ed Edwards' grounder and Foster batted in a run with his first hit. Lewis flew out, and Corkeade raised a high fly, but W. Leonard dropped it. Edwards trotted home on Presutti's high one to left and Shaw's double accounted for the other two runs of the quartet.

The fifth, due to some ragged Kingston fielding, gave the visitors four more runs. Keresman missed a fly. Presutti whiffed. Shaw doubled and ball dropped between the outfielders, to let Corkeade home. Sammons misjudged Saunty's bluff to center and another run came in. West Cramer's error and a poor throw by Tom McGrane, his only one of the day, accounted for two more. The box score:

Madison Square Passes Into Mike Jacobs' Hands

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—The varied destinies of the cauliflower industry passed today from the grip of Madison Square Garden, which had held them since the reign of Tex Rickard, to Mike Jacobs, the man who parlayed a Brown Bomber and a punch into the dictatorship of the fight game.

Jacobs, in leasing for two seasons the Garden and its outdoor arena, the big bowl in Long Island City, assumed Rickard's old post as the fight game's No. 1 promoter. He plans indoor boxing shows for the garden this winter and next, and outdoor fights at the bowl in 1938 and 1939.

Jacobs, a ticket-broker, learned the devious business methods of the fight game as Rickard's partner in the halcyon days of the million dollar gates and the 600 millionaires. When Rickard died, Jacobs went back to a booming brokerage business, and others tried to fill Rickard's shoes.

One of them was Jimmy Johnston, who, as matchmaker for the through his 20th Century Sporting Club. Outdoors he has the Yankee Stadium, the Polo Grounds and the Garden Bowl, the three largest outdoor arenas in New York.

Col. Kilpatrick gave business as the reason for the leasing of the Garden. "It means more money for us," said the colonel. The garden will collect "a definite rental fee" and a percentage on the fights promoted at the Eighth avenue arena.

Jacobs intends to continue the promotion of sports in the Hippodrome, with boxing, wrestling and probably basketball as attractions.

HEAVYWEIGHTS COUNT
The shift in power from the Garden to Jacobs shows more than that the man who controls the heavyweight title, by far the richest in the industry, controls big time boxing.

Jacobs picked up the title when the Bomber was almost unknown and brought him east for his first big fight against Primo Carnera. Since then he has sent the champion against Paer Schmeling, Braddock and others. With the exception of the Schmeling bout, Mike's meal ticket has been a winner.

When Louis won the title from Braddock, Jacobs was ready to bargain with Colonel John Reed Kilpatrick, president of Madison Square Garden corporation, for the use of the fight game's most famous arena.

He now has the use of the Garden and the Hippodrome, where he staged shows last winter

Good Old Gabby

—By Pap

It seems that everyone except Gabby Hartnett himself knows that the veteran catcher of the Chicago Cubs will be a big league manager next season. Those who "have inside dope" can't quite agree just which club Gabby will guide but they start with the Cubs and go right on down the list.

They whisper that Hartnett will step into Charlie Grimm's shoes at the close of the current season. If (that big little word again) the Cubs win the pennant. Good Time Charlie is slated for an executive position, they have figured, because his "miscue" will not permit him to remain in the dugout with the team. Grimm's recent illness opened the way for a test of Hartnett in the role of manager. It must be admitted Hartnett did better than all right.

If Gabby does not take over the reins in Chicago he will be in the driver's seat in New York. That's it—Gabby Hartnett, manager of the New York Giants? What about Bill Terry? That's easy. Terry, the gossips would have you believe, is about

Birdseye View Of Sports Events

By EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, Aug. 4 (AP)—Tom Gallery and Joe (Napoleon) Levy, rival Los Angeles fight promoters, are warring over outdoor dates. ... Bill Terry is going to have a "day" here soon, but the real news is that the prime mover is a Brooklyn fannette. ... Ouch! ... Gen John J. Phelan, boss of the New York Boxing Commission was supposed to sail for Europe last night on business connected with his brasserie factory. ... One of the best informed baseball writers in New York yesterday referred to Dizzy Dean as the "great" southpaw. ... Ouch! Diz may be a bit left-handed in the head, but not in the soup bone, pal.

Tommy Farr isn't burning up the woods in batting practice. ... This Bobby Riggs kid from Los Angeles is coming right along in tennis. ... He's landed in eight finals so far this year and lost only one. ... Note to Pie Traynor: Do you know other National League clubs are awing your signals with the greatest of ease. ... Catcher Al Todd stands a certain way when a fast ball is coming, but always shifts slightly for a curve. ... Joe DiMaggio's current secret desire is to meet Babe Ruth. ... If Lou Gehrig didn't receive checks from two breakfast food concerns after his bull on the air the other night, he should have.

Reports persist Bill Terry will sacrifice Gus Mancuso in next winter's campaign to build up the Jints and that old Gus (who surely rates the chance) will bob up as manager of either the Pirates or Phillies.

Don Budge and the other victorious Davis Cuppers dock tomorrow. ... Mike Jacobs will be among the greeters and so will Bill O'Brien. ... They ain't interested in seeing the pup, either. ... What they want is Budge's signature as a pro. ... First three horses in next week's Hambletonian figure to be Schnapps, Twilight Song and Desota, but not necessarily in that order. ... Bob Pastor is cleaning up on the races at Saratoga.

These are really dogdays for Philly fighters. ... Three of 'em were knocked out on the same night recently. ... Lorenzo Pack polished off Leroy Haynes; old Tony Galento put Al Ettore to sleep and Henry Armstrong, the black terror from the coast, did for Benny Bass.

Wrestling Card In Albany Aug. 10

The wrestling card to be presented at Hawkins Stadium, Albany, Tuesday night, August 10, was completed yesterday with the signing of Hank Barber, former Dartmouth football and baseball star and Mayes McLain for the first thirty minute bout and Mike Strelch, of Salem, Ore., and Jack Kennedy, of Texas, for the second 30 minute affair.

These bouts will support the main two out of three fall events between "Woe Willie" Davis and Jack Donovan, and the 45-minute semi-final between Abe Coleman and Jim Wright.

McLain has not appeared in Albany for some time, but has been going well in Western cities. He will however, be trying to reverse a decision Barber scored over him in Newark, N. J., almost a year ago. At that time Barber gave McLain, the "once over" winning the bout with a flying tackle in less than 10 minutes.

Kaplans and Kyanize Teams In Mixed Contest Tonight

The combination softball-baseball game between the Kyanize Painters and Artie Kaplans Old Catskill Appleknockers is the big attraction for this evening at 6:15 o'clock on the Athletic Field.

Plenty of rivalry exists between the two clubs, and predictions are that there will be action galore. "We'll take 'em over," Kaplan told a sports writer this morning. "I have a better club, I think, and anyhow, the Appleknockers must win because I have a special attraction to book them against after they finish up the Painters."

"We'll beat 'em at softball too," opined Dawkins, whose team plays in the City Baseball League. "This softball stuff is easier than the regular game. It'll be the same story as last year when the Kaplans A. C. trimmed Kaplan's club,"

Yanks Picked to Stop Surge Of Yawkey's Boston Red Sox

(By The Associated Press.)

That big money that Tom Yawkey threw into the Boston Red Sox is talking again.

In fact, it's shouting so loud it's making nervous wrecks of a lot of American League strong-arm squads.

How long it can continue remains to be seen, but if past performances are any indication, the Sox will keep on surging until their series next week with the New York Yankees slaughterers, who are now coasting along on an eight-game lead. Then they'll go quietly back to sleep for a time, as usual.

Until then, however, the three-million dollar investment of Yawkey's is going to keep on doing a lot of damage among the league's stronger contenders. Headed by a clouting comeback in Second Baseman McNair and a lot of flinging ability still in the aging but agile left arm of Bob Grove, the Gold Sox—last year they were the Gold Flaps—haven't been beaten in nine starts. In their current home stand they have checked up their longest winning streak under the Yawkey banner.

Big Guns In Drive.
Big guns in this drive has skyrocketed the Sox to a spot where they're flitting with second place have been four of Connie Mack's fancy priced ex-Athletes—McNair, Jimmy Pate and Pinky Higgins with their bats, and Grove with his balling southpaw slants.

McNair, snapping out of his month-old cream-puff hitting doldrums, has been belting the ball for a 4.05 average in the present ten-game drive. Fox and Higgins are moving along at .342 and .359 respectively. The three of them have driven in 29 runs in the surge. Grove is breezing along on a personal three-game winning streak. Adding this quartet are a couple of rookies, outfielder Colonel G. Mills and catcher Gene Desautels, who are paying first-year dividends with .357 averages for the ten games.

They started out the home stand by topping the Browns in two out of three. Then they knocked the ears off the Tigers in three games and tied a fourth. At present they're working on the Indians with the same success. They made it three straight over the tribe yesterday with a double-header win, 8-6 and 6-8, as Fox belted homers Nos. 27 and 28.

This twin win left them just a game back of the second-place White Sox, who learned their lesson again from the homer specialists, the Yanks, that there's no coming back for a circuit clout. Bill Dickey belted one with the bases loaded and Lou Gehrig hammered his 23rd before a single by Jake Powell in the ninth broke up the game and gave the Yanks a 10-9 win, their third straight over the slapping Sox. The conquest boosted the Yanks league lead to eight full games.

Giants Victors
The Giants cut their National League deficit to six games back of the Cubs by nailing out the Reds, 1-2. The Cubs lost a 2-1 heartbreaker to Lefty Lamaster and the Phillies.

The Dodgers pummeled the Pirates, 10-7. The Cardinals put on a ninth-inning five-run rally to top the Reds, 7-4. The Tigers walked the Athletics, 11-7, and the Browns beat the Senators, 8-3.

Game Comment.
The supposedly strong teams in the league have been "taking it on the chin" with amazing regularity lately, with two more of them bowing out last night.

Fair Street, first last winners, who were tied with the Comforters for first place at the second half by virtue of the Comforters' defeat at the hands of Ulster park. Wednesday, howed to the Redeemers 5-2 as Johnny Hough-taling outpitched Big Bill Newkirk. The game was rather a listless affair with Fair Street taking a 2-0 lead in the first inning and then being held scoreless for the balance of the game.

In the other contest Marty Nilan hurled the Port Ewens to a 3-2 victory over Clinton Ave. and Ferris Williams. This game went nine innings before the lads from across the creek pushed across the deciding run in the ninth. Neither team scored until the sixth inning, when each tallied two markers and each battled three more scoreless innings before the deciding run was in.

Charley Bock is expected to hurl for Berardis with George Zadany on the receiving end. Hoke Rask will toss them up for Rosendale; Hank Yonnett will be the receiver.

Emerson on Team Of Adirondack's Best To Oppose Invaders

Severino, Triola and Elacqua Make Up Rest of Upstaters Pitted Against Washington Stars Friday.

All eyes will be on Buddy Emerson, Kingston's No. 1 lightweight, Friday night when the team of scrappers, the best in the Adirondack A. A. U. clash with the cream of the "cauliflower" crop from Washington, D. C.

Emerson, the boy who boxed none other than Lou Ambers, before the lightweight champion of the world broke into the big time pro class, still has the punch that made him famous previous to his two-year layoff.

Buddy hasn't lost one scrap in his comeback attempt. He took all the opposition over, including the highly touted Joe Triola, Albany southpaw, the boxer who was brought to the auditorium to give the St. Remy slugger his supreme test.

Of course, Emerson beat him on a decision with which all of the fans did not agree, but it satisfied the majority. This makes Buddy the ace lightweight in the Adirondack division.

Friday night, Jimmy Gregg, Washington's 135 pound star, will be pitted against Emerson, who hopes to get by him. "I'm going to do my best," said Buddy. "I'll continue on the glory road. Maybe this fellow is good, but I'll bet he's not any better than Joe Triola."

Emerson regards Triola as one of the best boys he ever boxed and says as far as punching is concerned, Lou Ambers has nothing on him.

Another boy who will be favored highly tomorrow is Mario Severino, the Schenectady schoolboy featherweight, who is matched with Weynon Stewart, District of Columbia 125 pounder, who is rated as one of the best boys around the capital and is expected to give Severino plenty of trouble.

The rest of the card will present two five round bouts. In one Phil Elacqua will trade smashes with Billy Morris, Washington welterweight, and Joe Triola will be brought back for the second week in succession to box Jimmy Biske, another of the Washington sluggers.

The remainder of the bill will show Jimmy Thomas of Albany against Joe DeMeco of Schenectady; Joe Nagy, East Kingston against Lou Gentner and Johnny Freeman, Catskill, against Kid Robinson of Kingston. All of these are down for three rounds.

Turkey Followed Police Ball Game

After the police ball game, Wednesday, the Kingston and Newburgh teams sat down at the festive board in the Hotel Stuyvesant, with city officials and friends, and made merry, enjoying a turkey dinner with all the "trimmings" and plenty of conversation.

"Hall, ball th' Gang's All Here" and "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" were the tunes played by Bill "Ezra" Pardee and his Catskill Mountaineers, prior to the serving of the turkey, just to remind the boys of the good fellowship and of that game the Newburghers lost to Sergeant Simpson's "champs."

At the conclusion of the banquet, Peter Keresman, second baseman of the police team, and president of the Kingston Patrolmen's Benevolent Association took over the role of chairman and presented Mayor Conrad J. Heiseleman to the gathering.

"I'm glad we won that game," said the mayor proudly, "and I welcome you all here to Kingston on such an occasion when we needed a real attraction for the entertainment of the U. P. A. delegates convening in this city."

He continued, "These games are good. They develop a fine feeling of fellowship between the departments, and also help to build a finer morale."

Mayor Tweed of Newburgh admired the fighting spirit of the Kingston police team which kept on fighting right up until the end, to win out when Bill Leonard smashed his hard drive into the outfield.

Chief of Police J. Allan Wood and Chief Brown of the Kingston and Newburgh police departments, respectively, complimented the players, and urged them to continue their baseball rivalry.

THREAT OF STRIKE IS IMMINENT TODAY.

Cleveland, O., August 5 (AP)—Threats of a strike of more than a million railroad employees diminished today.

A five cents an hour wage increase announced in Washington brought peace between the nation's carriers and 809,000 non-operating employees.

Still confronting the railroads, however, was the vote of 350,000 members of five operating brotherhoods, authorizing a strike to enforce demands for 20 per cent raises.

Settlement of the dispute with non-operating brotherhoods, such as clerks and shomen, was announced last night by the national mediation board. These 14 crafts authorized early this week a strike if their demands were rejected.

Need Six Pianos For City Parks

"Community Nights in our city parks," said Mayor Conrad J. Heiseleman today to a reporter, "are a source of enjoyment to thousands, not only to the children who put on the programs, but to their parents, and adult friends who gather for the entertainments."

The mayor went further to say, "We need six pianos for the parks to use in accompanying the little singers and dancers and for community singing, which I would like to see developed. Community singing is good, and affords the elders a chance to join in the programs."

Any citizen desiring to contribute a piano for the enjoyment of the park children may do so by phoning the mayor's office, 3530. "Just tell the public we'll gladly take pianos that are not in use and are not wanted around the house any longer. I'll have a city truck pick them up, so there'll be no expense to the donors."

The mayor attends the Community Nights himself, many times calling off other dates, or arranging them so that he can be with the park children. "I always have a good time with the little folks at our parks, and so do the other adults who are turning out in greater numbers every week."

Concerning the supervised playground system that he started three years ago Mayor Heiseleman said, "even though I wanted to do a lot for the children in their vacation months, the period when they really need guidance and protection. I never thought the project would develop into such a vast thing. It has, though, and I'm more than glad because our children deserve the best we can give them to equip them to carry on for the generation to follow."

Of course, the mayor must always make a speech when he visits the parks on Community Night, that the children insist on. "Always strive to make Kingston a better place in which to live," he tells the little folks, "and don't forget you can do this by making the most of your parks and supervised play, which I hope you'll carry on for other little boys and girls when you grow up."

The park children hope the six pianos will be around soon to help them in their efforts to put on the best singing, dancing and recitation programs possible for their guests on Community Nights.

Plan to Evacuate All American

ed war planes were bombing Chinese trains and troops near Kalgan in an effort to halt the advance of Central Army troops from the capital of Chahar province. This province as well as Hopeh, Japan hopes to bring completely under her influence.

American missionaries expressed fear the Japanese domination of North China would spell doom of generations of American efforts and millions of dollars of American Social investments.

The Japanese, the Americans said, are believed to consider American and other foreign missionaries an obstruction to their desires of expansion on the Asiatic continent. The missions involved are those of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Adventist and Catholic Churches and the American Board of Missions.

Surprise Move

The Chinese move from the north on the Kalgan-to-Peking railroad was reported to have taken the Japanese commanders in North China by surprise. The main Japanese advance was to the south.

Two parallel Japanese columns, 60 miles apart, were marching south from Peking and Tientsin and were drawing steadily closer to Central Government troops opposing their advance.

Reports from Nanking, Capital of the Central Chinese Government, said Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek was meeting with his ministers and army commanders in emergency session.

Japanese estimates placed the number of casualties since July 7, at 12,000 for both sides. Chinese were estimated to have lost 2,650 killed and 8,000 wounded while 264 Japanese officers and soldiers were said to have been killed and 869 wounded.

Included among the schools in Peking which Americans feared would be closed by Japanese domination are the Rockefeller-Peking Union Medical College; Peking College for Chinese studies, Yenching University and Catholic University with a total United States investment of $19,000,000.

University Doomed

American leaders at Yenching considered the university permanently doomed as a result of Japanese opposition, with the possible exception of the science college which may be reopened in the fall.

Rockefeller-Peking administrators pessimistically pointed to the fate of the Mukden Medical College when Japan conquered Manchuria. They said the college was rendered ineffective by "Japanese persecution which drove out competent doctors and nurses." Doctors of the institution feel sooner or later they will be found guilty of anti-Japanism or "what-ever other offenses the Japanese desire to allege."

Catholics were more hopeful as they have been able to carry on their work in Japan with such institutions as the Tokyo Catholic University. They thought they might be allowed to maintain similar schools here.

None of the Americans felt they would suffer personally in the collapse of their work but they expressed the fear that Christian Chinese doctors and professors attached to their institutions were slated for harsh removal in one way or another.

130 Killed by Typhoon

Keijo, Korea, Aug. 5 (AP)—One hundred thirty persons were killed and 18 injured by a typhoon which caused widespread property damage in northern Korea.

During the fiscal year which closed June 30, the national debt reached an all-time peak of more than $36,000,000,000. While there has been talk spasmodically about balancing the Federal budget at some future date, the realization of this hope remains baffling and elusive, like a mirage in the desert.
